

STUDY of SOCIAL, HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES

in

ECUADOR

May 17 – 29, 2010

Southern Illinois University Carbondale School of Social Work in collaboration with

International Education Programs MSASS/Case Western Reserve University and the Andean Study Center

Through field visits and seminars, students and professionals will observe and study the social and health services in urban Quito, Ecuador and the surrounding rural areas. Site visits and study of HIV-Aids, gerontology, child welfare, prisons, disaster interventions related to the volcanic eruption of Tungurahua, Trafficking in Human Persons and USAID policy, substance abuse services, disability services, analysis of native Quichua families, an examination of traditional and modern medicine and the local religious influences, site visit in an Afro Ecuadorian Community in Chota, education policy, and a firsthand view of a progressive labor policy at a flower farm in the Andes Mountains.

You will have opportunities for hiking, biking, and exploring rural villages, and other outdoor activities such as white water rafting, and time to experience Ecuadorian music, dance, and cooking. The hot springs at Baños near RioBamba, the Otavalo Market, the San Antonio de Ibarra Woodcarving, the Museo de la Ciudad San Francisco, the Museo Guayasamin, and other museums and places of cultural interest are on the itinerary.

Cost: $2,895 (tuition not included) Spring or Summer 2010 (3 – 6 credit hours), CEU & Independent Study. Open to all students and interested professionals.

Southern Illinois University
Carbondale

School of Social Work

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences

ANDEAN STUDY PROGRAMS

Paul D'Angelo
SIUC School of Social Work
875 S Normal Ave., MC 4329
Carbondale, Illinois 62901
Phone: 618-453-1204
Fax: 618-453-4291
Email: henry5@siu.edu

Tom Saville
Study Abroad Programs-SIUC
Email: studyabr@siu.edu
Phone: 618- 453-7670

Dr. Mizan Miah
Program Director
SIUC School of Social Work

Dr. Debby Jacobson
Mandel School of Applied
Social Sciences
Case Western Reserve University
10900 Euclid Ave. Cleveland
Ohio 44106-7164
Phone: 216-368-6014
Fax: 216-368-8670
Email: dxj@po.cwru.edu

