MEMORANDUM

To: The 2005 Graduating Class
From: Sandra R. Bolton, Assistant Dean of Student Services
Re: Request for Nominations

IRENE SOGG GROSS SERVICE AWARD NOMINATION FORM

DEADLINE: Friday, April 1, 2005

Nominations are being accepted for the Irene Sogg Gross Service Award. This award was established by Mr. Milton Gross to honor the memory of his wife, a MSASS graduate in the class of 1940. It is given to a member of the graduating class, chosen by his or her peers, “in recognition of outstanding interest and accomplishments in the areas of humanitarian service.” A plaque and a small cash award will be presented at the commencement ceremonies, to the student named by his or her classmates.

The award is based on the individual’s:

1. Unusual capacity of human understanding, and
2. Demonstrated evidence of social service through curricular and extra-curricular activities.

Do you know a classmate deserving of this important honor? If so, please complete the section below:

I nominate ______________________________for the Irene Sogg Gross Service Award.
(Print nominee’s name)

Comments: ___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

Signature ______________________________________Date________________ (void if not signed)

Please return this form by Friday, April 1, 2005 to:

Sandra Bolton, M.Ed.
Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences
Case Western Reserve University
Student Services/Financial Aid, Room 121
10900 Euclid Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio 44106-7164
Fax: 216-368-5065